

of Tyrrell, Wells, Whitley, Wiley, Woodhouse and Young—83.

Mr. Wheeler moved to amend section 4, lines 54 and 55, by striking out all after the word "restriction" in said section.

The yeas and nays were called, and the amendment was rejected by the following vote :

The following gentlemen voted in the affirmative :

Messrs. Barnett, Boyd, Brewington, Bunn, Candler, Carter, Cary, Crews, Dula, Garrison, Godwin, Good, Griffin, Hill, Hughes, Jones, Lloyd, Moore, Munden, Newell, Norment, Parker, Scott, Walden, Ward, Wheeler, Whisnant and White—28.

The following gentlemen voted in the negative :

Messrs. Anderson, Atwater, Bernhardt of Rowan, Barrett, Bennett, Bizzell, Bryan, Bryson, Carson, Davis of Haywood, Davis of Jackson, Dortch, Eatman, Erwin, Etheridge, Fields, Finger, Foote, Freeman, Gaither, Gash, Glenn, Green, Gudger, Hanner, Harrison, Haymore, Holt, Hurley, Isler, Jessup, Johnston, Kendall, King, Latta, Martin, McCalop, McCubbins, McIver, McNeill, McRae, Means, Mebane, Mendenhall, Mitchell, Mizell, Mock, Moring, Moseley, Mullen, Oaksmith, Page, Parrott, Patton, Pinnix, Presson, Proffitt, Reid, Shackelford, Sharep, Smith of Anson, Smith of Hyde, Spears, Staples, Staton, Stephenson, Stowe, Strong, Tate, Thompson of Beaufort, Thompson of Lincoln, Walker of Richmond, Walker of Tyrrell, Wells, Whitley, Wiley, Wood, Woodhouse and Young—79.

Mr. Candler offered the following amendments:

"Section 21, Bill of Rights, shall not be interferred with, which declares the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended."

"That section 5, Article 5, in the Constitution, shall not be interferred with."

"Article 13, sections 1 and 2, shall not be interferred with."

"That section 4, Article 1, in Bill of Rights, shall not be interferred with, which declares that the State shall ever re-